Who is playing in the Soccer Aid for UNICEF 2022 teams?

Soccer Aid for UNICEF 2022 will feature a special half time show from Mr Soccer Aid himself, UNICEF UK Ambassador Robbie Williams.

Celebrity favourites Tom Grennan, Chunkz and Martin Compston will lace up their boots once again to play alongside footballing legends Gary Neville, Jamie Carragher, Fara Williams and Patrice Evra. Usain Bolt makes his return as captain of the Soccer Aid World XI team, competing at the London Stadium ten years on from his gold medal heroics at London 2012.

Taking to the pitch for the first time in the world's biggest celebrity charity football match, new signings for 2022 include former One Direction singer Liam Payne as captain of the England team. He will be joined by Emily in Paris star Lucien Laviscount, and comedian Alex Brooker – who will become the first-ever physically disabled participant to take part in the game.

Off-pitch, UNICEF UK Ambassador Dermot O'Leary returns as presenter joined by Maya Jama providing her take on the game as a pundit. Bringing you the action up-close, Alex Scott will be returning as our pitch-side reporter.

Many more famous faces are set to be announced in the coming weeks, keep up to date on SoccerAid.org.uk for more exciting player announcements.

England: Harry Redknapp (Manager), Liam Payne (Captain) Lucien Laviscount, Tom Grennan, Chunkz, Gary Neville, Jamie Carragher, Fara Williams, Joe Cole, Alex Brooker and David Seaman (Goalkeeper Coach).

Soccer Aid World XI FC: Arsène Wenger (Manager), Usain Bolt (Captain) Martin Compston, Mo Gilligan, Chelcee Grimes, Patrice Evra and Robbie Keane.

Line up details will be announced via the organisers official website: <https://www.socceraid.org.uk/>
